SUPPORTING DIVERSE GRADUATE STUDENTS: RESOURCES OF STANFORD COMMUNITY CENTERS

Stanford Graduate Student Services Forum
November 5, 2015
AGENDA

- Brief introductions by each panelist
  Role and specific graduate student programs/resources
- Facilitated panel discussion
- Open Q&A with audience
TODAY’S PANEL

Jan Marie Barker-Alexander
Associate Dean of Students and Director
Black Community Services Center

Greg Graves
Assistant Dean for Student Affairs & Associate Director
Native American Cultural Center

Joseph Brown
Associate Director
Diversity and First Gen Office

Faith Kazmi
Associate Dean and Director
Women’s Community Center

Mona Damluji
Associate Dean and Director
The Markaz

Cindy Ng
Associate Dean of Students and Director
Asian American Activities Center

Benjamin Davidson
Associate Dean of Students and Director
LGBT Community Resources Center

Margaret Sena
Graduate Student Program Developer
El Centro Chicano y Latino
QUESTION 1
What are some pre-conceptions that people might have about the experiences of the student populations you serve?
QUESTION 2
What would you say are particular challenges that the graduate student populations you work with encounter?
QUESTION 3

Please share a particularly successful program/initiative that your Center spearheaded.
QUESTION 4

What are ways in which the graduate student services staff can engage and collaborate with your Center?
QUESTION 5

How can graduate student services staff, in their own daily work, help support diverse graduate students and build an inclusive educational environment?
THANK YOU, PANELISTS!

Q&A with the audience
QUESTION 6
Are there specific upcoming events/programs you would like to highlight and that the graduate student services staff can help spread the word?