Tuition Allowance for appointments greater than 50% and up to 90% will decrease proportionately as the appointment increases, e.g., a 75% appointment in the Summer Quarter will earn the value of 5 units of tuition. Students with 90% Summer appointments will receive a Tuition Allowance payment equal to the 1-3 Unit tuition charge, and must enroll in 1,2, or 3 units. TGR students must enroll in the regular TGR course. Wherever possible, summer appointments of over 50% should be established as single appointments, rather than a combination of smaller appointments.

NOTE: Unless the student is TGR (or Research Rate in the MD program), the cost of TAL for Research Assistants is shared between the source of salary funding and the University (or school of Medicine) in the same way during the summer as it is during the school year. This applies to all non-TGR and non-Research Rate appointments.

TGR and Research Rate students receive TAL equal to TGR or Research Rate tuition, and that amount is charged entirely to the source of salary funding.

* A 60% Summer Assistantship pays TAL equivalent to 8 units of tuition (8 X per-unit cost). Students enrolled for 8 units will be billed the 8-9-10 unit tuition. Similar to a 40% assistantship during the Academic year, a 60% Summer appointment will NOT provide the full tuition for a student enrolled in 8, 9 or 10 units.

 85% or 90% Summer Assistantships pays TAL equivalent to the value of 3 units of tuition (3 X per-unit cost), the minimum tuition charge.
